

Number of sections: 1
 Number of students: 16

At the end of each semester, instructors use Online Competency Index form to submit the rating scores of each of their students based on the class assessments on each competency. This sample report shows the course average scores on each of the 36 competencies of ADCN-0105. This report is distributed to all instructors who taught the same course but different sections and is used to review the results and plan the assessment for the next year.